Подготовка к итоговой аттестации (в новой форме) выпускников основной школы средствами УМК "Enjoy English"

В 2009 / 10 учебном году предполагается, что одной из форм итоговой аттестации выпускников основной школы по иностранному языку может стать экзаменационная работа¹.

Итоговая аттестация по английскому языку (в новой форме) нацелена на выявление уровня языковой подготовки выпускников 9-го класса и соотнесения его с запланированным в федеральном компоненте государственного образовательного стандарта по предмету. Экзаменационная работа, в отличие от существующего устного экзамена по английскому языку², позволяет оценить коммуникативные умения выпускников во всех видах речевой деятельности: аудировании, чтении, письме, устной речи, а также языковые умения и навыки учащихся.

Итоговая проверочная работа состоит из двух частей — письменной и устной. В первую (письменную) часть включены задания по:

- аудированию: на понимание основного содержания прослушанного текста и на понимание запрашиваемой информации в прослушанном тексте;
- чтению: на понимание основного содержания прочитанного текста и на понимание запрашиваемой информации в прочитанном тексте;
- грамматике: на знание изученных грамматических явлений и особенностей структуры простых и сложных предложений английского языка;
- лексике: на знание основных значений изученных лексических единиц и основных способов словообразования — аффиксации, словосложения, конверсии;
- письменной речи: на написание личного письма.

Вторая (устная) часть позволяет оценить умения учащихся строить монологическое высказывание по заданной теме и вести диалог-расспрос (расспрашивать собеседника в соответствии с заданной ситуацией общения).

При подготовке к экзамену (в новой форме) рекомендуется использовать учебники, которые включены в Федеральный перечень учебников, рекомендованных (допущенных) Министерством образования и науки Российской Федерации к использованию в общеобразовательных учреждениях.

Одной из линеек, которые входят в указанный перечень, являются учебники серии "Английский с удовольствием" / "Enjoy English" для 2–11-х классов. Содержание учебников (предметное содержание речи, формируемые речевые умения и языковые знания и навыки) полностью соответствует требованиям нормативных документов, на основе которых было определено содержание итоговой экзаменационной работы: федерального компонента государственного образовательного стандарта по иностранному языку и примерной программы по английскому языку.

Содержание УМК "Enjoy English" для 9-го класса предполагает достижение выпускниками основной школы, которые изучали английский язык по данной серии учебников со 2-го класса, уровня A2 / Waystage level (согласно документам Совета Европы), что соответствует уровню сложности заданий итоговой экзаменационной работы.

Какие компоненты УМК "Enjoy English" готовят учащихся 9-х классов к итоговой аттестации по английскому языку (в новой форме)?

Основным компонентом УМК является учебник, который содержит материал, необходимый для формирования коммуникативных умений и языковых умений и навыков учащихся, а также позволяет провести текущий и итоговый контроль знаний и умений учащихся. Так, учебник "Enjoy English" для 9-го класса состоит из четырех разделов (Unit), которые соответствуют учебным четвертям. В конце каждого раздела учащимся предлагается выполнить проверочную работу (Progress Check) и оценить свои языковые умения и навыки, коммуникативные умения в аудировании, чтении, письменной речи и говорении. Типы предлагаемых в учебнике проверочных заданий аналогичны тем, которые использованы в демоверсии экзаменационной работы.

- 2 Read the text and do the tasks below.

When I was as old as my daughter is now my parents were not happy with my behaviour. I argued with them, ignored their orders and didn't appreciate their care. Now I see how wrong I was: they wished me only good. Now I have a teenage daughter myself. I think that the main thing with teenagers is not to overcontrol their lives and not to take care of them too much. It sounds strange, doesn't it? But I mean that parents shouldn't check if their children's schoolbags have been packed or their school uniforms are clean and tidy. I never tell my daughter Sarah that she shouldn't drop her school blazer in the corridor and/or that she should go to bed on time. I accept that she can plan her day and can keep her school uniform wherever she likes on the floor or under the bed or in her own schoolbag. But she should look tidy at school and shouldn't make a fuss in the morning if she is late and her dress doesn't look right.

I don't support the idea of prohibiting something without a good reason. Last month Sarah declared that she was grown up enough to arrange home parties for herself. She said that she wanted to invite her friends and that her responsibility was not only to make up the list of the guests but to manage the whole event to arrange the time that fits the plans of the family to think about snacks and drinks beforehand, to make up a scenario for the party and to find time to tidy up the flat before and after the party. I asked her to make up a kind of a business plan for the event and if everything was OK, there was really no reason to prohibit it, was there?

Sarah put off the party several times. She did it, not because I didn't let her invite the friends, but because she, herself, couldn't prepare everything on time. She acted like a grown-up, not a naughty demanding child.

I'm sure that my tactic works with my daughter. She understands now why I don't allow her certain things. She sees the reason behind it instead of a parent's wish to treat her as a child. She often asks for my advice and appreciates it when I give it to her. In her turn, she tries to support me in difficult situations. She understands that it's not easy to be adult and independent and to manage life as best you can.

Read the article and fill in the gaps with sentences A–E. Write the letter of the missing sentence in the box. There is one extra sentence you will not need. Transfer your answers to the table.

Sandwich generation

There are different families in terms of size and number of generations. There are so-called nuclear families, which consist of parents and dependent children, that is, children who are not old enough to take care of themselves in financial terms. There are also extended families, which also include grandmothers and grandfathers, sometimes even aunts and uncles with their spouses' and kids. They all live together and form one household.

In the past, most families in Russia and other countries were extended families, and three or more generations used to live together. 1. The first refers, mainly, to the young generation — when young people become independent financially and are able to support themselves, they usually leave their parents' house. The latter is about elderly people — grandparents often want their own personal space too

Part III

Use the words at the end of the line in the appropriate form.

Do you believe that some jobs are more _____ (1) for men and some occupations are more appropriate for women? If you do, don't tell John Tailor about it! He is a teacher in a nursery school and loves his job very much.

"It's a prejudice," says John Tailor, "to think that men are not as good with little kids as women are. This prejudice _____ (5) many men from working in schools. It's only through experience that I found out how interesting _____ (6) and _____ (7) this job is. Kids can't forgive lies and indifference, they never justify _____ (8) and unfairness. They bring me up too — every minute and every day. Very often I have a feeling as if I were taking an exam. A "good guy" qualification exam! And I feel a great job _____ (9). Being a teacher is a job for clever, strong and _____ (10) men."

and live apart from their grown-up children as long as they are able to take care of themselves.

However, a new trend of the contemporary society has been spotted recently by western researchers. Statistics say that more and more people turn back to extended family lifestyle, when several generations live in one household. Young people tend to stay with their parents even when they become adult. Grandparents, who live longer than they used to, also prefer to share a flat or a house with their children and grandchildren, as they need support and company of other members of the family. But the main reason for that is, certainly, money. 2. It saves money and makes life easier as the household chores¹ can be distributed among several members of the family according to their likes and abilities.

Along with those indisputable advantages there are some disadvantages — different generations have different values, habits and interests, they often get on each other's nerves, which leads to conflicts. 3. A new term "the sandwich generation" has appeared to denote these people. The sandwich generation are those who take care of the elderly and the young, and rule the family in general. 4. Life is quite tough to her. To survive and to maintain a happy family she needs to exercise the extreme tolerance when looking after both children and parents. It would be nice of the other members of the family to appreciate it.

A. There should be someone who is able to resolve conflicts, bridge different interests and take care of others.

B. Lots of people prefer extended family because it gives them comfort and support.

C. Nowadays the situation is different and many people prefer living on their own, if, of course, they can afford it and if their health allows them to do it.

D. In most cases this is the daughter of the elderly generation and the mother of the young generation.

E. It's obvious that one big household is more economical than three little ones.

Каким же образом организована работа над коммуникативными умениями учащихся в УМК “Enjoy English” для 9-го класса? Достаточно ли материала для подготовки к экзамену и успешного прохождения итоговой аттестации (в новой форме)?

В учебнике содержится более 50 заданий на формирование аудитивных умений учащихся: понимать на слух несложные аутентичные тексты с разной глубиной и точностью проникновения в их содержание (с пониманием основного содержания, с выборочным пониманием и полным пониманием текста). Учащиеся слушают аутентичные тексты (беседу или высказывания собеседников в стандартных ситуациях общения, краткие публицистические тексты, тексты прагматического характера), доступные и интересные девятиклассникам по содержанию и языковой трудности. Длительность звучания соответствует требованиям примерной программы по английскому языку — до двух минут. Понимание услышанного проверяется в различных формах: “Listen to... and choose the right statement”; “Listen to... and choose the correct answer to the question”; “Listen to... and fill in 30 Work in groups. Choose one of the texts. Read it. Find the sentence that reflects the idea of the text in the most accurate way.

You must be patient and understanding towards the family. They love you and want to help.

We can't choose relatives, but we can choose friends — and that's the thing!

It's safer to rely on family.

Friends are good for nothing.

My parents don't let me have friends.

A Family means a lot to me. It's not just two, three or seven people living together, but a unity of people who support each other in different situations. Anything can happen in this life, but I know that the only people who will always love and understand me are my family. It is thicker than blood. They will always remain more important to me than friends. Friends can let you down. There are lots of books and films about them. This can envy your success at school and your success with girls, and even your cool jeans or a bike can make them feel jealous. It doesn't matter that I don't have many friends. If I get into trouble, the people I ask for advice are my parents.

B Friends are everything to me. Life isn't worth living without friends. My family... they don't care about me, and frankly speaking, I don't care much about them either. The only things they care about are their jobs and hobbies. They don't care about me, not even a little bit. They are always busy. Sometimes they ask me about my progresses, but I'm never sure if they hear my answer. I would feel absolutely lonely if I did not have friends. We often gather at my place or somewhere else to play about life, listen to music and have fun. Sometimes we quarrel, but I don't believe that my friends mean to hurt me. Life is cool with them.

C I think I am very lucky. I have a family that loves me and friends I enjoy spending time with. My parents and I are people of different generations, so we don't see the world in the same way. But I know they wish me well and I appreciate their advice. (Though sometimes I ignore it and forget about it.) They don't like all of my friends, but they don't just say “no”. They try to explain their point of view, and sometimes I find their arguments quite convincing. I agree that not all people you go out with can be called friends. Real friends are very rare and you should cherish them (бережно к ним относиться). And if you happen to find them, take care of them, never hurt them and try not to lose them.

Unit 2 Section 2

70 Now read the extract from the book. Complete the sentences after the text.

What finally awoke Ben was the engine coughing. “Please wake up!” shouted Davy. “What's the matter?” “Push the lever forward,” whispered Ben. Davy couldn't have known about the lever and now Ben wasn't able to point to it. But the boy saw the direction of his father's eyes in time and the engine took up again.

“What direction do I take?” Davy cried again. “You're not telling me how to get the right direction.” “Follow the coast. Keep it on your right. And for God's sake, don't do anything else. It'll be all right, Davy...” Ben could see the sharp profile of Davy's pale face with his dark eyes. The boy had remembered how to level off and to keep the plane straight. “He'd do it,” Ben thought. At those thousand feet, on his own, Davy did not think he could ever cry again. He had run out of tears. He had boasted only once in his ten years of life that his father was a pilot. He had remembered everything his father had told him about flying, but he had guessed a lot more that his father had not told him. Now Davy couldn't even look at his father because he was horribly covered in blood. He didn't want his father to die, but he knew that it was now a possibility. “I'm afraid I did it,” Ben said.

The team that Davy thought had dried up in him were now in his dark eyes, and he felt them running down his cheeks. Ben felt a sharp pain and opened his eyes. “Davy! What's happened? What are you doing?” he managed to shout. “We are almost there. I can see the buildings of Cairo,” Davy said. “But the plane doesn't want to go down.” “Can you explain...?” “I don't think it does. It doesn't seem to make a difference.” “Use the tail lever,” Ben said, and the plane put its nose down a little.

“Cut your engine!” Ben shouted again. He knew that getting a plane off the ground and flying it was easy but getting it down was another thing. The wind was blowing them back up. They lost air speed now because the nose was up. If the engine stopped at this height in this wind, they'd crash into a thousand pieces. ... They had to land. Ben closed his eyes and tried to land like a pilot. They were safe. Ben and Davy had landed. Ben closed his eyes and when he opened them again, the big plane was directly in their path but moving so quickly that they were going to miss it.

научно-популярные, художественные. Представленные тексты соответствуют предметному содержанию речи, определенному государственным стандартом для основной школы, и по языковой трудности до-пороговому уровню (A2). Все тексты снабжены системой упражнений, которая включает предтекстовые и послетекстовые задания. Характер заданий на понимание прочитанного обширен и разнообразен: “Read the text and put the missing sentences in the appropriate places”; “Read the text. Then mark the sentences as true (T) or false (F)”; “Choose the best ending to complete the sentences”; “Read the text and find the sentences that reflect the ideas of the text in the most accurate way”; “Look at the pictures and arrange the sentences in the right order”, etc.

58 Read the text and point out the ideas that are contrary to the content of the text.

- 1 Julian doesn't like any activity in common with his friends and, in extreme situations, they understand each other extremely.
- 2 Julian travels quite a lot because he wants to dive in different places and see the underwater world in its variety.
- 3 Julian and his friends think that cold oceans are as good for diving as warm seas.

59 Read the text again and make up sentences with the opposite meaning to the following. Use the phrases from the text.

- 1 It's not necessary for me and I can easily do without it.
- 2 I feel that I'm in good physical and mental condition.
- 3 The trips make me feel caught in the net of everyday problems.

5 Julian doesn't like any activity in common with his friends and, in extreme situations, they understand each other extremely.

4 Julian travel twice a year. It is a “must”: otherwise, he would have to give up his favorite hobby – diving studies. The thing is that, for three years, I've been a member of a diving club and every season we get together at a new place. We arrange these trips to escape from everyday problems and to get into the beautiful and calm underwater world. We have already dive in the Red Sea, the coast of South Africa and in the dark, cold and clean waters of Lake Baikal. Nothing can compare to the excitement you feel while exploring deep underwater caves without knowing what kind of a wonder or danger you might face there. There are people of all ages in our club. Most of them are like me – I call them close and reliable friends in spite of the fact that we see each other only during our trips. We don't have any communication problems even though not everybody speaks English fluently. We work as a team. It's not the words but the care, help, and support that are essential for survival. Yes, it can be dangerous sometimes, and I'm often asked why I take the risk. I don't really know, but I'm going to keep on doing it.

Определенные трудности возникают у учащихся при написании личного письма: как выбрать правильную форму обращения и завершающей фразы, как правильно организовать текст письма, как выдержать заданный объем письма и т. д. Учебник и рабочая тетрадь № 1 содержат ряд упражнений, которые позволят учащимся научиться писать личное письмо: раскрывать в письме все аспекты, указанные в задании; выбирать стилевое оформление послания с учетом цели высказывания и адресата; логично выстраивать текст, используя разнообразные языковые средства для передачи логической связи, и правильно делить текст на абзацы; соблюдать требуемый в задании объем письма; оформлять личное письмо в соответствии с нормами письменного этикета, принятого в англоязычных странах.

Кроме того, УМК знакомит учащихся с правилами заполнения различных анкет и формуляров (Landing Card, Curriculum Vitae), учит создавать другие письменные произведения: электронные послания, эссе, тезисы устного / письменного сообщения и т. д.

Особое внимание в УМК “Enjoy English” уделяется развитию устно-речевых умений учащихся. В учебнике реализуются несколько моделей говорения. Например, учащиеся читают текст, который содержит интересные факты, необычный сюжет или мнение по определенной проблеме, а затем обсуждают этот текст с использованием известных и новых языковых и речевых средств. Наличие в учебнике большого количества парных и групповых работ позволяет учащимся рассуждать и обосновывать свое мнение; высказывать, аргументировать и отстаивать свою точку зрения; выражать свое отношение к обсуждаемому вопросу. При подготовке к итоговому экзамену по английскому языку (в новой форме) учащиеся могут использовать в качестве основы для высказывания языковой и фактический материал, данный в упражнениях учебников “Enjoy English” для 7, 8 и 9-х классов.

Для того чтобы принимать активное участие в диалогическом общении, в частности вести диалог-расспрос, учащийся должен обладать хорошими навыками и умениями речевого взаимодействия с партнером: уметь начать, поддержать и окончить беседу в соответствии с нормами вежливого поведения; запросить необходимую информацию, используя разные типы вопросов и соблюдая этикет; принять и озвучить соответствующее решение. В УМК “Enjoy English” для 9-го класса предусмотрена планомерная работа над совершенствованием коммуникативных умений учащихся в диалогической речи: прослушивание аудиозаписи и повторение диалогов-образцов, прочитывание диалогов по ролям и инсценирование диалога в свободной форме с заменой отдельных лексических единиц или реплик, создание собственных диалогов в соответствии с ситуацией общения. Весь ход работы над речевыми умениями учащихся обеспечивается специальной системой упражнений. Так, в УМК включены задания, показывающие учащимся схему построения диалога.

Принимая во внимание языковые трудности, которые возникают у учащихся при обмене репликами, при поддержании беседы, при запросе интересующей информации, авторы предусмотрели специальную рубрику “Dialogue Vocabulary”. Учащимся предлагаются речевые клише и устойчивые словосочетания, которые могут быть использованы при диалогическом общении.

Dialogue Vocabulary

- In my opinion...
- I think...
- To my mind...
- What do you think about it?
- It's a good idea to...
- I feel strongly against it.
- I'm absolutely positive that...
- I don't care about...
- Do you mean that...?

Один из разделов итоговой экзаменационной работы по английскому языку нацелен на проверку языковых умений и навыков учащихся.

Сначала учащиеся должны восстановить текст, преобразовав выделенные слова так, чтобы они грамматически соответствовали содержанию текста. Для того, чтобы девятиклассники успешно справились с этим непростым заданием, они должны знать и употреблять в речи существительные во множественном и единственном числе, глаголы в действительном (Present, Past, Future Simple; Present, Past Continuous; Present, Past Perfect) и страдательном (Present, Past, Future Simple) залоге, модальные глаголы и т. д.; уметь строить вопросительные и отрицательные предложения, сложноподчиненные предложения с Conditional I и II, предложения в косвенной речи и т. д. В УМК “Enjoy English” для 9-го класса большое внимание уделяется повторению, обобщению и систематизации пройденного грамматического материала (рубрика “Grammar Focus: Review of...”). Для работы над грамматической стороной речи в учебнике и в рабочей тетради № 1 даны разные типы упражнений: подстановочные, альтернативного и множественного выбора, на завершение предложения, на восстановление текста, на трансформацию, на перевод.

Контроль за формированием грамматических навыков может быть осуществлен с помощью специальных проверочных заданий, данных в учебнике (раздел “Progress Check”) или в рабочей тетради № 2. Учащимся предлагается выполнить различные типы задания, в том числе и на восстановление текста.

Работа над лексической стороной речи в УМК “Enjoy English” происходит во взаимосвязи с обучением грамматике. Девятиклассникам предлагается избыточное количество лексики, что позволяет выбирать наиболее подходящее слово или словосочетание для решения поставленной перед ними коммуни-

(Because of serious reasons, these things are either not very important or not urgent.)	Things I shouldn't do this week. (If I do these things, there may be problems.)	Things I mustn't do this week. 3 Read the text. Fill in the necessary articles and learn what a limerick is.

When I was on holiday, I read a lot. I read some fiction and detective stories, (1) short stories and historical novels. In general, I prefer (2) prose to poetry, as poetry seems a little bit boring to me. However, I like (3) limericks very much. They are quite popular in (4) Britain, in (5) Ireland in particular. A limerick is (6) kind of humorous little poem. It has only five lines. (7) first line rhymes with the second, the third with the fourth, and the last one with the first and the second again. (8) rhyme of a limerick is like this: AABBA.

I even wrote (9) limerick myself.

It's about a holiday at (10) seaside:

Lay in the sun as long as you can
No doubt, you'll get a wonderful tan.
At contests of beauties you'll get the first prize
And even your doctor will say in surprise
That he is forever your fan.

кативной задачи. Особое внимание уделяется формированию умения догадываться о значении новых слов с помощью словообразовательных элементов (суффиксов, префиксов) и умения употреблять эти новые лексические единицы в собственных устных и письменных высказываниях.

Таким образом, в УМК “Enjoy English” есть весь необходимый языковой и речевой материал, а также система разнообразных речеподготовительных и речевых упражнений, которые позволяют сформировать у учащихся коммуникативные умения в аудировании, чтении, говорении и письме и языковые умения и навыки на английском языке в объеме, необходимом для успешного прохождения государственной итоговой аттестации по иностранному языку (в новой форме). Подтверждением вышеизложенного могут служить хорошие результаты, которые показали учащиеся ГОУ СПб № 2009 г. Москвы, изучавшие английский язык по УМК “Enjoy English”, при сдаче экзамена в рамках аprobации вариантов экзаменационной работы для выпускников 9-х классов общеобразовательных учреждений.
